Defense Intelligence Agency Director Lt. Gen. Michael Flynn and his deputy, David Shedd, will retire by early fall, DIA officials confirmed.

The men announced their intentions in a joint email to agency personnel April 30.

“As we look back on our nearly 70 combined years of service to DIA, our military, the intelligence community and to our nation, we are proud of the legacy of sustained superb performance of the thousands of men and women we have served alongside throughout these many years,” the email to the DIA workforce stated. “It has been our distinct honor to serve with you and so many others in defense of our nation.”

Flynn has helmed DIA since July 2012, while Shedd joined as deputy director in August 2010.

Flynn, the one-time top intelligence adviser to Gen. Stanley McChrystal in Iraq and Afghanistan, has not been shy about calling for change in DIA and in the broader defense intelligence community — an approach that insiders speculate may be behind his departure.

In an interview with C4ISR & Networks earlier this month, Flynn emphasized the need for intelligence agencies to work more closely in concert, and to get ahead of the technological curve.

“What we’ve found on the battlefield, we knew that working together and integrating people and capabilities worked. Integration is en vogue right now in the intelligence community,” Flynn said. “Everyone likes to say they’re innovative, but everyone also likes to say we need to be more innovative. Why can’t we be? Look at all the innovation exploding around us; why can’t we be innovating? The intelligence community has always been innovative but it’s like we have to force it into our systems. It shouldn’t be that way. We should be driving innovations and not being driven by new developments in technology.

We should be the ones developing that technology.”

Rumors about Flynn’s departure began swirling as the news broke Wednesday afternoon.

Says The Lord God Almighty - Collected Intelligence and Serious Prophetic Warnings

Terrified at her torment, they will stand far off and cry: "Woe! Woe to you, great city, you mighty city of Babylon! In one hour your doom has come!" Then a mighty angel picked up a boulder the size of a large millstone and threw it into the sea, and said: "With such violence the great city of Babylon will be thrown down, never to be found again." 22But I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the day of judgment, than for you. 23And thou, Capernaum, which art exalted unto heaven, shalt be brought down to hell: for if the mighty works, which have been done in thee, had been done in Sodom, it would have remained until this day. 24But I say unto you, That it shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom in the day of judgment, than for thee. "Traitors MUST be punished!!!" says God

THE ETERNAL JUDGMENT OF THE TRAITORS IN THE GOVERNMENT

Prophecies given through Brian Charles

Almighty God says to you: "Not a one will escape My wrath. They must be punished. They must be punished, for betraying the country, the people. I will punish them. They will burn in Hell. I have given them much, and they have misused it. They will be punished for all eternity. I the Lord have spoken."
--to the Traitors in the U.S. Government.
"Judas is there." --in Hell

A second angel followed and said, "Fallen! Fallen is Babylon the Great," which made all the nations drink the maddening wine of her adulteries." A third angel followed them and said in a loud voice: "If anyone worships the beast and its image and receives its mark on their forehead or on their hand, 10 they, too, will drink the wine of God's fury, which has been poured full strength into the cup of his wrath. They will be tormented with burning sulfur in the presence of the holy angels and of the Lamb. 11 And the smoke of their torment will rise for ever and ever. There will be no rest day or night for those who worship the beast and its image, or for anyone who receives the mark of its name."
Revelation 14:8-11
